

To Shorthorn Breeder's of Western Canada

Feed conditions of Western Canada have been serious during the past winter and the situation may have seemed somewhat discouraging. I feel however, that there is no reason for feeling discouraged as there is bound to be a legitimate demand for years for good cattle and the better the cattle the stronger the demand.

Breeders associations, governments and individuals are beginning to realize that a reasonable profit can only be realized by breeding and feeding the best livestock. One man I know in the Swan River district who has been using good Shorthorn bulls for years realized on his grade cattle last fall $28.00 more per head than the average price paid for cattle of the same age and from the same district. It does not need many demonstrations of this sort to convince.

There are some things that we as Shorthorn Breeders should keep in mind. There were more Shorthorn cattle registered in the National Livestock Records last year than all other breeds combined and it is desirable that we should retain this lead. In order to do so every man breeding Shorthorn cattle should raise as good cattle as possible. Good cattle can only be produced by liberal feeding which is especially true to young stock. Unless calves are well developed there can not be good cattle, and those who have been breeders in livestock improvement have realized this. Scrub care will make scrubs of good cattle. Can't you take good care of your calves and make a good show at your local fair at least? I think breeders should realize that a good exhibit of your favorites at the fairs always has an influence on the man who has as yet not decided which breed to tie to. If you take reasonably good care of your young things they will develop into better cattle than if they have not been well cared for and they will always be ready for sale. If calves are running out and a creep is provided so they can have all the oats they want, shade, water and salt available they will come along splendidly. I have found in my own experience that I got splendid results from sowing oats and barley for pasture and letting cattle have access to this as soon as it gets about six or eight inches high. This keeps up the flow of milk and makes the calves thrive. They should not, however, be allowed on this all the time and should have grass to supplement.

We need cattle in good condition for sales as conditions warrant and if breeders would prepare something good so that a supply would be available I think we could accomplish a wonderful amount of extension work. In order to advertise the breed, the Association and yourself favorably, only animals that are right in every way should be sold in these sales. Occasionally a cow or heifer that goes through a sale fails to measure up to the guarantee and this causes loss to both the buyer and seller and disappointment to all concerned. When good clean cattle are put in these sales there may occasionally be disappointment in the price realized but it will surely prove a good thing to the seller in the end and anyone who takes advantage of these opportunities to associate with his fellow breeders will no doubt profit by it. Every animal that goes through a public sale in poor condition helps to lower the average of the sale, proves a disappointment to the breeder, the association and proves a bad advertisement for the contributor.

Prof. Day, Guelph, has a lot of literature for distribution and this contains some very interesting facts. Won't you send in a list of the men in your district who might have an idea of buying Pure Bred cattle? Copies will be mailed to those on your list and I know one of the instances at least where a man who received these pamphlets bought three cows and a bull from one of his neighbors as a direct result. These are also some men starting in Shorthorns in your district who are not yet members of the Association. It would strengthen the Association and be of advantage to these men to belong. The herd book, the Shorthorn Annual and the reduced rates for registration are all advantages that come to the members and are worth while. Send a list to these men.

Do you know of any good grade calves, a good age for Boys' and Girls' Calf Feeding Contests? Take a look around and notify me so I may assist boys in getting good ones to feed. No boy can make much of a showing with a poor calf and a lot of poor calves are not much of an advertisement for the breed. Won't you do the best you can in this respect?

Breeders may feel that as the Association has appointed a Fieldman that he will look after the Association's interests, I shall be glad to do all I can but I feel that unless breeders boost I will not be able to accomplish very much. Join the provincial Shorthorn Association. The Dominion Association will take care of any advertising and if this is done the local club will have money for local extension work and could use part of it to encourage showing at local fairs. Special Features-- Calgary Exhibition June 26 to July 3

The prize list for the Calgary Exhibition may be obtained by writing to E. L. Richardson, manager, Calgary. The fair dates this year are June 26th to July 3rd and entries close on June 14th. Over $7,000 has been added to the prize list for the live stock department for this year, making the total offered in all departments now $34,500.

The new hundred thousand dollar cattle stable and judging pavilion will be used for the first time this year and will add greatly to the comfort and convenience of the exhibitors.

Calgary is fortunate this year in being able to secure Locklear, possibly the most daring acrobatic performer in the world. He does acrobatic stunts all over an aeroplane and finishes his act by changing from one machine to another in full flight in mid-air. This is positively the greatest attraction that can be obtained for any exhibition.

Auto Polo will also provide many thrills for fair visitors, while the musical programme will be supplied by Canada's crack military band, the 48th Highlanders, of Toronto.

Special passenger rates will be in force for the Calgary Exhibition from all points in Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia east of Golden on the Main line and Nelson on the Crow's Nest.

Crop and Live Stock Report

EDMONTON, June 1.—(Department of Agriculture.)—The crop situation over the past fortnightly period is marked by two outstanding features—favorable moisture conditions throughout the province and rapid progress towards the completion of seeding. Light showers have kept the under supply of moisture moving up to the roots of the crop but not heavy enough to check seeding. Horse and machine power are proving about adequate to needs. Good labor is rather scarce. The reduction in total crop area is almost negligible subject to possible reduction in ripe grain and larger supply of green feed on account of lateness of season. Wheat acreage is reduced ten per cent for the province, oat and barley acreage increased in Southern Alberta but not much increase in centre and north.

Regular wheat seeding completed a week ago except for small belated areas. Oats and barley sixty per cent completed in Southern Alberta but only thirty per cent in Peace River country. Progress of crop not yet rapid on account of cool weather but wheat is nearly all through and well rooted. Rye is excellent. The general lateness of the season and high winds over a small area are the only limiting conditions to good results. Some soil blowing has occurred at certain points in the south but prospects have improved since last report and on the whole are excellent.

Grass on the prairie is the best in years. Stock losses are over. Loose horse stock already considerably improved and cattle stock beginning to fill. Sheep are doing well but the lamb crop is not heavy. Pig stock is in the worst situation of any. Over sixty per cent of sows that should litter this spring were sent to the packing plants last fall. The pork output this year promises to be light.

J. McCAIG,
Crop Statistician and Publicity Commissioner.

HIS PRESTIGE GONE

"Rattlesnake Bill" is strangely altered. What's the trouble? "Bill says if he had known what was before him when he went into the movies he would have stuck to train robbing and kept his self-respect. In the old days no man ever talked to him the way the director does and lived to tell the tale."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Club is contributing $280 for prize money this year and while this seems a little it is a start. There has been a wonderful increase in prize money appropriated for 1920. The provincial secretaries are Jno. Strachan, Pope, Man.; E. R. Mooney, Weyburn, Sask.; and W. W. Sharpe, Stettler, Alta.

There has been a number of Shorthorn Calf Clubs organized and for these heifer calves about a year old will be needed. I appeal to breeders to co-operate in order to make these clubs a success.

I solicit on behalf of the Dominion Shorthorn Breeders Association your heartiest co-operation. Every man that begins to breed Pure Bred Shorthorns strengthens the Association and broadens your market. Kindly give this letter your careful consideration. If every Shorthorn Breeder should start one man breeding pure breeds what would it mean to the Association?

Yours for better Shorthorns,
JAS. B. DAVIDSON,
Western Representative D.S.A.
Carman, May 18th, 1920.

Some Thoughts on U.F.A. Sunday June 20th

With religion as a body of theological dogma, or as embodied in specific organizations with certain rites and ceremonies, the United Farmers of Alberta as an Association can have no concern. With religion as a fundamental and elemental power of humanity, a power which sets itself against wrong, seeking to eradicate evil and to establish mankind as a moral and spiritual realm in which good will shall prevail and right be enthroned, the association is very practically concerned, and with the church as a body established to promote such conditions the association can cordially co-operate.

It may be said that generally the object of the U.F.A. Sunday is the mutual recognition between the church and the association of common principles and ideals, and mutual encouragement toward more aggressive prosecution of the movement in the direction of that which the church prays for when it says "Thy Kingdom Come." If by holding a special service the local community can be led to fuller consciousness of the necessity for earnestly contending for a better day for mankind, and to more practical co-operation in efforts toward the realization of that day, it should not be in vain.

Below are a few points which might fittingly be emphasized:—

1. The obligation upon every individual to interest himself in conditions around him and to accept responsibility for their improvement. We do not truly live at all if we live to ourselves. We must look not on our own things alone but with brotherly and helpful interest also upon the things of others. We do not in any real sense serve God unless we are doing service to those around us. The life that remains isolated and inactive is a failure.

2. "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." To truly live is to fulfill the relationships and obligations of our environment. To be prepared to live is to be prepared to serve one's generation. To allow our children to grow up with the idea that life's great achievement is the making of money or the owning of land or the surrounding of oneself with a splendid establishment is worse than folly. The only abiding satisfaction is in service done to others.

3. Sin is found not only in individual thought and action, but has been crystallized into systems of social, economic, commercial and political activity. As United Farmers we believe that the things we oppose are wrongs that are being imposed—that is, that they are morally wrong, that they injure our people, and that they ought to be opposed by every one who believes that right should prevail. The economic competition which prevails is utterly out of harmony with the golden rule. The systems of government tariffing and bonussing of certain industries at the expense of the rank and file of the nation's citizenship, is utterly subversive of morality and makes for the prevalence of other evils. A judicial system which permits it to be possible for the wealthy man to secure legal aid which the poor man cannot secure is, to say the least, far from being ideal. The man who would live in the world of today must train himself to see the moral qualities of existent conditions.

4. The teaching of our children to regard the practical things of civic responsibility as duty is as necessary today as ever. The democracy and the Christianity of today is responsible for giving direction and impulse and quality to the democracy and the Christianity of tomorrow. It is not enough to teach moral principles, we must train the young in the practical application of them to actual conditions. The training of leaders for tomorrow is one of today's greatest tasks.

5. The organization in which we are united is an instrument through which the individual can apply Christian principle and purpose to the community. As a public welfare committee for the local area every good that we can do to our people is what we ought to set ourselves to do.

6. The nation's life today is calling in a special way to the great agrarian movement, east and west. It is in a special sense the hour of the nation's need. Let us not fail Canada in this crisis. Let us by high moral principles, earnestly taught and faithfully practiced help our people toward higher levels.

Many believe that the United Farmers' movement is the most powerful agency in Canada today for the establishment of the Kingdom of God on earth. Its principles are fundamentally Christian, and in its development along the lines of natural law it is in harmony with the universal principles of progress. So firm is the faith of the U.F.A. leaders in the social principles of Jesus that they are convinced that a departure from them would, or ought to mean defeat.

In this connection President H. W. Wood says:—"The social laws must be recognized in our efforts to teach the truth. I am fully convinced that every truth revealed by science is in absolute harmony with all religious

Ardenville U.F. W. A. Gave Concert

(From the U.F.W.A. Local 107.)

Some one said that the only time we come alive out here is when some one dies, but the Ardenville U.F.W.A. broke through and went over the top on Friday, May 28th with a rousing concert under the skillful training of Miss Ethel M. Turner, our teachers, where the local talent both young and old was displayed to a good advantage. After the audience had enjoyed this treat, the ladies showed that they had not been sleeping in the kitchen the previous day as they served a supper fit for the very elite, after which dancing was indulged in till the light began to appear on the eastern horizon, when the boys said they were very sorry but they would have to go home and go to work. The proceeds amounted to about $30. This being the first attempt the ladies naturally feel very well satisfied.

Now Comes a Musical Play of Honolulu

WILL BE AT THE EMPRESS NEXT WEEK, WITH UNA CARPENTER AS THE STAR

"A Night in Honolulu," which comes to the Empress Theatre for one night only, Tuesday June 15, is a pretty musical play of the Island Paradise by the English author Howard McKent Barnes.

The story is a unique one, full of exciting thrills and fervent heart throbs, and holds the audience in an intense, vice-like grip until the final climax, the big burning, smoking volcano and everything ends happily for all concerned.

Miss Una Carpenter, the sweet, pretty star, plays to part of "Kalama," the dancing girl, and during the course of the play introducing her conception of the famous hula dance—not a vulgar display of this instructive and interesting dance, but an artistic and refined interpretation.

The Winnipeg papers were quite enthusiastic over this little lady and her dancing during the engagement of "A Night in Honolulu" at the Walker theatre. The Free Press said, "She is without a doubt the best in her line that ever graced the Walker stage. She is an artist and a dancer and will long be remembered by Winnipeg theatregoers."

The cast of actors is a capable and meritorious one and includes, besides Miss Carpenter, Miss June Rose, the musical comedy beauty, who was last season with "Zeigfeld's Polies"; Miss Hazel Baker, late of Belasco's "The Boomerang" company; Miss Frances Dowling, a prominent stock actress; Russell Hoffman, Randall Noren, Milton Goodhand and Thos. Keeney.

This company is touring Canada under the direction of the Trans-Canada Theatres Limited and comes to Macleod highly endorsed and recommended for a good, clean, entertaining performance.

The real native Hawaiians, who sing and play their harmonious, entrancing melodies are encored and recalled many times. At each performance they play that dreamy, wistful music that lingers in your memory and haunts your soul; that fascinating music once heard is never forgotten.

Mark Twain once said, "Hawaiian music is the most fascinating in the whole world, and once heard is never forgotten."

truth. If I have studied Christ right, He is in complete harmony with every scientific truth that man has established. How He, living 2,000 years ago, could have harmonized Himself with all of the revealed truth of today, is a deep mystery to me, but it is the basis of my unshakable faith in Him, and of my belief that of His teachings we will ultimately develop a true social system, or in His own words, "The Kingdom of Heaven." I am convinced that He knew the truth, I know not how. I am also convinced that we will know the truth and the Truth will make us Free."

Good Roads Convention at Winnipeg

H. W. Bright returned on Saturday last from Winnipeg, where he was in attendance as a delegate from the Municipal Districts Association of Alberta to the convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association. Mr. Bright reports the convention as well attended from all over the continent.

The main object of the convention was the advocacy of the Canadian Coast to Coast Highway and provincial co-operation as regards same.

The convention was enthusiastically in favor of the project and as ministers of public works of most of the provinces were in attendance, it is likely that on their representation to their various governments that the project will be brought to completion at a comparatively early date.

Many interesting papers were read dealing with road construction under different conditions in various parts of the American continent, and the convention results will be towards better roads.

Warning Against Possible Floods

A warning is being sent out from the Reclamation Service of the Department of the Interior at Calgary to persons who are operating on, or have property along the large rivers in Alberta. Investigations show that there is now more snow in the mountains this year than under ordinary conditions, and this fact combined with the very late spring creates a condition favorable for very high water floods. This is not a prediction that there will surely be a flood, but rather an early warning that there may be one. Persons carrying on any constructive work, operating ferries, driving logs, etc. will be well advised to make every provision possible against the eventuality of a flood.

EMPRESS NEXT MONDAY ONLY "STRONGER THAN DEATH"

(Reviewed by Louis Reeves Harrison.)

The resistless power of true love is the theme of "Stronger Than Death," derived from a novel by I. A. R. Wylie, one of the best dramatic spectacles yet produced by Metro. The whole is impressive as a work of decorative imagination without loss of balance in sentiment and subject. It is interesting because Nazimova makes it so. Instead of posing as a meaningless creature of destiny, she shows us the heart of a woman. In a massive pictorial background that is a triumph of hand and eye, she uncovers a spiritual struggle, one of the greatest in drama, that with self.

In the role of a frail woman who has found her strength unequal to her ambition, Nazimova appears to be wrapped in a veil of lassitude, oppressed by melancholy, resigned to her fate. In society she only permits herself an occasional delicate little smile. She resents insult with gentle calm, instead of with tragic bitterness, but standing her ground with flawless dignity. Even when almost overwhelmed by a tumultuous rush of sensations she is only demure and dimly appealing, meeting the real emergencies with mere quiet resolution.

All this constitutes a most difficult impersonation. It may, therefore, be justly said that the subtleties and refinements of Nazimova's acting in "Stronger Than Death" surpasses any screen revelation she has hitherto made of herself. They are an inspiration in the art of emotional expression.

Prominent in the strong supporting cast is Charles W. French, as the hard old British Commandant of Indian troops; Charles Bryant, as a noble type of English officer, and Herbert Prior in the role of an artistically repellent half caste. These impersonations stand out clearly and in powerful contrast to the varied personalities.

As a massive creation, rich in backgrounds, imbued with romantic suggestion and a delight to appreciative vision, "Stronger Than Death" has been rarely equalled. Also is this particularly true in the case of a marvel scenic construction, the splendid reproduction of an Indian Temple of Vishnu. The directors have thus united their impressions of glamour and truth. This unity, with the mood of the story, provides a solid foundation for what is personal—and therefore vital. The whole seven reels provide an engrossing entertainment which will be enshrined among classics of the screen.

Public School Makes Good Record

The regular meeting of the Public School Board was held in the school on Monday evening, June 8. Present, Trustees Fawcett, Stewart, Little and W. A. Day. The chair was occupied by Trustee Little.

The estimates for the year were presented and the sum of $23,000 was asked from the town.

The usual monthly accounts were submitted and passed.

Miss Kydd and Miss Simpson were appointed presiding examiners at the forthcoming departmental examinations. It was also decided to procure the necessary pens, ink and paper for that examination.

It was also decided to advertise for sale the school building and lots on 10th St., on the south side of the tracks.

The principal, Mr. A. J. MacGowan, gave a very satisfactory report in which he stated that there was a total enrollment of 328 and the average daily attendance was 304.47, or a percentage of 93.92.

Big Jump in Pensions

OTTAWA, June 3.—It is expected that the hearing of evidence by the special committee on pensions and re-establishment will be completed by the end of this week and that the committee will then get down to its deliberative sittings and endeavor to hustle along its report to parliament. So far comparatively little evidence on re-establishment has been taken but this field was well covered during the sittings of the committee last autumn and it is not expected that a great number of further witnesses will require to be heard. The report on pensions, it is understood, is almost completed and if adopted by the house will mean a big increase in Canada's pension bill to disabled men and dependents.

It is thought to be likely that continuance of the bonus system will be recommended, with the addition of an increase in the basis of pension from $40 to $60 per month and a bonus of 25 per cent. This would bring the total disability pension for one month to $75 instead of $60 as at present. This plan was favored, it is said in view of the present unstable conditions and the possibility of needed revision within a year or so.

The disability table followed by the board of pensions commissioners is not likely to be altered in any way, it is intimated.

There may, however, be some recommendation in regard to amendments to the Pensions act to cover special cases and it is likely that provision will be made that where widowed mothers have other income no deductions from their pensions will be allowed.

"JINX" TONIGHT AND TOMORROW

MABEL NORMAND APPEARS IN ECCENTRIC COMEDY

Here is the old time Mabel Normand—the Mabel of the Keystone "lots" appearing in a veritable pepper of eccentric comedy hot off the griddle. While the picture unfolds an idea is held together with melodramatic and humorous threads, this angle will be overlooked by the average spectator providing he is one of Mabel's devotees. He will be interested only in the comedienne's antics. Her tricks, her expressions, her clothes all bring back memories of the time when she appeared with Chaplin. It is a circus story, is "Jinx," and naturally it offers a rich quota of action—but action which has to do with life back of the tents and pertaining to the freaks rather than in the show itself.

To detail the plot would be presenting nothing out of the ordinary. On close inspection it offers a romance between a couple of freaks with enough conflict generated to make their happiness a thing of hope rather than reality until the conclusion. She is little Miss Ragamuffin and Cinderella rolled into one. And she is called the Jinx because of the hard luck she brings to her associates. The youth who impersonates the "wild man" has faith in her and eventually finds out that she brings good luck as far as he is concerned. It is Mabel Normand's picture any way you look at it.

A. T. Leather was the host to an auto party last Saturday, the party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Leather, Inspector and Mrs. J. A. Macdonald and Mrs. Milburn, motored over to Cardston and visited the Mormon Temple. They report that the crops down through that country are looking very good.

Rev. W. A. Lewis left on Sunday night to attend the Alberta Conference of the Methodist Church, and as a member of the Stationing Committee, they met on Monday evening, and were in constant work all the week. Saturday he went to Cadogan, where he preached on Sunday, June 6th, to good congregations.

A. F. Grady and M. Orr, delegates from the Macleod District, of the Methodist Church, who have been attending the conference in Edmonton, turned early this week and report a very interesting conference in the northern city. The north part of the province has plenty of rain, but seeding is later than this southern part.

The Synod of the Calgary Diocese of the Anglican Church, meets in Calgary on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 15 and 16. The opening service will be held in the cathedral on Tuesday, when Bishop Pinkham will give the address. The meetings of the synod will be held in the Paget Hall, where the usual business affecting the Diocese will be transacted.

In connection with the synod, however, a very interesting and important event will take place, as arrangements are being made for the celebration of the Centenary of the Rupert's Land Ecclesiastical Province.

Mrs. C. W. Stevens left for Calgary Monday on a visit to friends.

C. M. McDonnell, of Calgary, is visiting friends in town for a few days.

John D. Baillie went on a business trip to Lumbreck and west on Tuesday.

C. Grier has been in the northern part of the province on a business visit.

At the Methodist Conference recently held in Edmonton, the local delegates were Rev. W. A. Lewis and W. H. Day, and Messrs. A. F. Grady and Mr. Orr.

Rev. W. H. Day spent the week in Edmonton attending the Alberta Conference of the Methodist Church, and continues to work on Macleod South field for the year.

A. McDonald has just finished seeding 270 acres of flax on Mr. Geo. Pearson's farm. He cultivated and seeded this 270 acres in five and one half days, using a 15-27 Case tractor.

Albert Bain, who has been attending Garbutt's Business College, Calgary, returned home on Tuesday night. Albert is returning to Calgary in a few days to take a position in the C.P.R. Telegraph Office.

Worthy of mention in window displays of local stores this week is that of John T. Doney. All lines of hand-painted China are effectively and harmoniously displayed—take a look at this artistic window display.

The comedy, "Cranberry Corners," put on by an amateur theatrical company from Lethbridge, under the auspices of the Macleod Hospital Ladies' Aid, was a huge success. There was a crowded house, and the ladies are greatly pleased with the financial returns.

There has been on exhibition in the window of R. W. Russell's jewelry store a very attractive display of cut glass, silverware and Crown Derby China. The display was in the form of a table set for dinner with silver cutlery, fruit dishes, cut glass water jugs and tumblers and Crown Derby bread and butter plates, with a massive silver candelabra as a center piece.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Women who said they were sympathizers with the cause of Irish freedom, burned a British flag in front of the treasury building yesterday and paraded with banners calling on the United States to force Great Britain to pay interest on its debt to America. The women were not molested.—Lethbridge Herald.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Secretary Colby, on behalf of the United States government, tendered a verbal apology to the British ambassador for the burning of a British flag here last week by Irish women.—Lethbridge Herald.

LONDON, June 4.—Winston Churchill, secretary of war, announced in the parliamentary newspapers today that there were 40 tanks and 28 airplanes in Ireland at present.

BELFAST, June 4.—The followers of Sir Edward Carson have been defeated in county and district council elections in their own strongholds in choosing boards of guardians. In addition to the Sinn Feiners' winning of County Tyrone for the first time and maintaining their hold on County Fermanagh, Michael Carsollan, who was unseated by the Belfast council following his sentence at hard labor for an alleged seditious speech, today headed the poll in the Spink Hill division of Belfast, which previously had been a stronghold of Orangeism. Still another Sinn Feiner heads the polls in the Falls division, Belfast, the stronghold of Joseph Devlin, and another Sinn Feiner was elected in Lisburne.

CORK, June 4.—The battleships Warspite and Valiant arrived in Cork harbor today and transhipped a large number of marines into destroyers, which took them into Queenstown, where they landed. The transport Czaritzza embarked 1,200 troops at Devonport for Queenstown, from which place they will be distributed in Wexford, Waterford, Cork and other counties. A goods train was wrecked last night in a street of Westmeath, Leinster, as a consequence of the rails having been torn up.

LONDON, June 4.—A meeting to decide whether a special workers' convention will be called to consider the boycott on handling munitions for Ireland is to be held June 16 by the parliamentary committee of the British trades union congress. At the same time it is believed a policy respecting the Russo-Polish situation and a possible boycott on all commerce with Hungary will be formulated.

CHICAGO, June 4.—Eammon De Valera, "president of the Irish republic," today arrived in Chicago from New York, and announced he would attempt to obtain a plank in the Republican platform in favor of the recognition by the United States of the Irish republic. "I hope to see this plank introduced into the platform of both parties," he said.

Empress Theatre Monday. The brilliant Russian star is seen in a role that splendidly displays her almost uncanny powers as a mistress of the human emotions. It is that of a London dancer who finds love in India, that land of mystery which has figured so much in recent prose, poetry and dramatic literature.

"Stronger Than Death" was adapted for the screen from the widely read novel by I. A. R. Wylie. It recounts the adventures of Sigrid, the dancer, and the man she adores—the hermit doctor of Gaya. He is a physician who devotes his time to fighting a cholera epidemic among the natives.

Strong cross currents run deep through the narrative. The biggest dramatic scene is where Sigrid hies to the steps of the Temple for a dance in the moonlight. Her presence there is regarded by the natives, who are even then planning a massacre, as the returned spirit of the sacred dancer of the temple, "the bride of Vishnu."

In the splendid cast supporting the star are Charles Bryant, as the hermit doctor; Charles W. French, Herbert Prior, Margat McWade, Millie Davenport, Henry Harmon, W. H. Orlamond and Bhogwan Singh. In the many turbulent scenes of massed action several hundred persons take part.

Mr. Bryant adapted and scenarioized Miss Wylie's novel for use on the screen. He also assisted Herbert Blache in the direction of the production, which was made under the personal supervision of Maxwell Karger, Nazimova's Director General.

"Stronger Than Death" is an admirable vehicle to follow Nazimova's portrayal of the shabby chorus wail in "The Brat." The contrast between the darkly imperious Sigrid and the impetuous, girlish "brat" is striking.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son, Roderick Crow, drowned at Macleod June 8, 1919. Also of dear Jack, killed in action for King and country, somewhere in France, June, 1917.

Two of the best that God could lend. In life they were together. In death not divided.

Could we have raised your dying head
Or heard your last farewell,
The grief would not have seemed so hard
To those you loved so well.
Sleep on dear Jack in your unknown grave,
In a land we may never see;
But we know full well in that spirit land
That Rod and Jack have both clasped hands.

Inserted by their sorrowing father and mother and brothers, Macleod.

SHOULD GET TOGETHER ON IRRIGATION

The Dominion government believes that any real encouragement for irrigation in Alberta should come from the provincial government and has done but little to assist the effort that south Alberta farmers are making to put water on the land.

The provincial government believes that the real encouragement should be given by the Dominion government and has done much less to encourage the project than those interested in the southern part of the province had hoped.

Between the opposition of the two, the irrigation project is being neglected in this province.

The provincial government has guaranteed two years' interest upon the bonds of the undertaking or something like $500,000. The irrigation company cannot secure a very good price for their bonds with such limited guarantee.

The company and the province expected that the Dominion might be prepared to advance a certain portion of the money at a reasonable rate of interest and in that way save the project from the very costly depreciation in the loans, and thus give the undertaking a very much better chance of life. But the Dominion, according to the statement of Premier Stewart, will do nothing, encourage nothing and advance nothing.

Taking the most lenient view, which view is that activities of governments must necessarily be limited by revenue conditions at this time, it seems very bad business that the province and the Dominion cannot get together, to furnish greater encouragement for this very important undertaking—Exchange.

A. McGregor v.s. Dolan and Conzet Co.

An interesting case and one of considerable importance was tried before his honor, Judge McNeill, on the 8th inst. The action was that of A. McGregor, of Granum, against T. J. Dolan and Conzet & Co., of Lethbridge. It appears that on the 18th of March, 1920, MacGregor made an order through Dolan as agent for a car of hay and deposited $50.00 on account. The hay arrived at Granum on the 12th of April, but the agent, Dolan, acting on instructions from Conzet & Co., demanded $35.00 a ton. The Plaintiff paid the $35.00 a ton under protest and took the hay and brought action for recovery back as damages. Several witnesses swore to the contract and the price of hay that day and the price of hay on the date of delivery. There was some very contradictory evidence between the contending parties but at the close of the case for the defence, without allowing evidence in rebuttal, the judge gave a sharp and short judgment for the Plaintiff with costs of action, stating that he would file written reasons after court.

This case is very important to farmers because of the manner of dealers in hay during the winter and spring and many farmers have rights about the same as the case above noted.

Joseph Hicks appeared for the Plaintiff, while E. C. Cameron, of Lethbridge, appeared for the defence.

Tree Planting Car on Way Here

The "Tree Planting Car" of the Canadian Forestry Association has started on its long tour of the Southern Prairie provinces. This represents one of the most unique enterprises and while picturesque in its conception, has been heartily endorsed by such organizations as the Grain Growers, Boards of Trade, agricultural societies and business interests generally. The date of arrival here will be announced later.

In charge of the car is Mr. Archibald Mitchell, the well-known authority on tree planting and Canadian prairie conditions. Mr. Mitchell plans while here to give several of his instructive and entertaining talks on how to establish tree belts and what advantages they bring. It is hoped to have a special meeting for the school children.

The Tree Planting Car is entirely educational in purpose and is equipped as a motion picture lecture hall. Mr. Mitchell has some excellent movies on the subject of planting and these will be shown both at the Car and, if it can be arranged, at some local auditorium.

The Canadian Forestry Association is responsible for the whole enterprise which aims to develop public interest in the value of trees not only a preventative of soil drifting and to beautify our farm homes, but as the other damaging effects of prairie winds.

Mrs. J. Nixon Passes Away

The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Nixon, whose death at the age of 70, occurred on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. (Sergt.) Webb, after a long and painful illness, extending over two years, caused by cancer in the stomach, took place on Monday. The funeral service was conducted in the home by Rev. J. Merrick, rector of Christ Church, in the absence of Rev. W. A. Lewis, of whose church the deceased lady was a member. The pall bearers were R. D. McNay, E. F. Brown, W. G. Andrews, S. McCrea, E. J. Muldoon and J. A. Webb.

Mrs. Nixon came west to Winnipeg from Hamilton, Ont., in 1880, returning east in 1884. In 1887 she came to Macleod to join her husband and her home had been in the town ever

Base Ball News of Week

A very interesting baseball game was staged on Friday, evening June 4th, between the town team and the R.C.M. Police, before a large crowd of spectators. The game was full of thrills from start to finish and was proclaimed by many to have been the best game seen here for many moons.

The baseball club here is doing its best to put up a good brand of baseball and is being ably supported by the Mounties. However, owing to lack of funds the town boys have not yet been able to get baseball suits, but hope to have in the near future, when games with outsiders will be arranged.

The game, as before stated was very close and exciting. At the end of the sixth inning the score stood, 6-5 in favor of the Police. The town came to bat first in the seventh and by putting across three runs, made the score 8-6 in their favor. However, with due respect to the Police and the Umpire, it was getting too dark to play ball and, although protests were raised, it was decided to call the game and by mutual arrangements on both sides the game was called a tie. This will be played off on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A collection was taken up which netted a little over twenty-seven dollars. This money will go to buy baseballs and bats of which the club is greatly in need, and also to construct a backstop and fence along the base lines. The club in this respect is doing its best to avoid accidents such as those which happened Friday evening.

Another game will be staged Monday evening, June 15th, and as the club is in need of finances, a large turnout is requested.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

OTTAWA, June 2.—By 120 votes to 94 the Fielding amendments to the budget speech was defeated in the commons at 6.30 this morning. The house had waited throughout the night and the early morning hours for the result of the vote, and when the division bells rang, there was a general flocking of members to the chamber. When the vote was announced cheers arose from the government benches. The government majority on the vote was 26. H. O. Wright, Battleford, and J. A. Campbell, Nelson, Man., former government supporters, voted for the Fielding amendment. W. A. Buchanan, Lethbridge, who had announced his intention of opposing the government tariff proposals, was not in the chamber when the vote was taken but was paired with Dr. J. W. Edwards, Frontenac.

The budget is now adopted in principle but not in detail. Every item will have to be gone over, scrutinized and passed separately, and incidentally to this process a number of changes are certain to be made in relation to where the taxable limits should apply. Two full weeks have been devoted to the discussion and if any angle has been overlooked it has been an inadvertence. The better part of a week will be taken in committee. The criticism has been on the score that necessities not luxuries are taxed, the government reply being that a wide range of taxes had to be imposed and that the tax applied only to higher-priced stuff, a fact likely to encourage economy.

Considerable evidence is forthcoming that already it is having this effect as to the tariff. As to the lack of changes, the answer has been that revision is impending.—Calgary Herald.

LONDON, June 2.—The report of the Milner commission on Egypt is expected at any moment. The foreign office is only awaiting cabinet authority to publish same.

One of the most important questions the report will deal with is the reform of the present cumbersome judicial system in Egypt. Drafting of an entirely new penal code is expected to be recommended.

The appointment of a finance minister with sole control of Egyptian national finances is also probably to be proposed.—Calgary Herald.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Continuation of present federal wheat standards was decided upon today by Secretary Meredith in an opinion covering hearings held to inquire into dissatisfaction in the central north-west with existing grades for hard red spring and durum wheat. Requests for lowering the present standards, the secretary announced, would tend to decrease the return to farmers, while advocates of the change argued that the producer would receive more money for his wheat.

The federal standards established in 1917 and revised in 1918 have been operative only under fixed price and war conditions, the secretary stated, adding that opportunity for fair tests of their merits or defects have now been afforded under normal marketing conditions.—Calgary Herald.

MONTREAL, June 2.—The detective department here today discovered that John Doughty, the secretary of Ambrose Small, the Toronto theatrical magnate, and who had been reported missing soon after his employer disappeared mysteriously on December 2 last, was in Montreal for a month after that date. He lodged at St. Catharine street boarding house and his grip has been found there.

A news dispatch from Toronto today stated that Mrs. Small has received letters demanding a ransom from a lawyer in New York.—Calgary Herald.

EDMONTON, June 2.—Two children, a boy and a girl, aged 10 and 15 years respectively, were, according to telephone reports to the provincial police in Edmonton, enticed into the woods near Manola, Alta., some 15 miles from Westlock, Tuesday afternoon, and brutally murdered, it is alleged, by a man known as Thomas Munn, a homesteader and returned soldier. He is reported still at large and a posse of citizens, headed by Provincial police, sent out by Inspector Piper, of this division, are hunting for the fugitive.

The victims were Sylvia MacDonald aged 15, and Andrew MacDonald, 10 years old, children of Otis MacDonald of Manola.

According to reports received by the police, Munn enticed the children to his home under the pretence of showing them some pictures. He is alleged to have further requested the children to accompany him to the Illustrating incidents in his daily work.

1. He points the way to success for the young man.

2. He stops the city man and persuades him to think of his real objects in life.

3. Under the evening lamp he urges the farmer to protect his home.

4. He pays a widow's claim and finds the money is sorely needed.

The Canada Life Man comes into close touch with the people.

He is known to be honest and sincere, with a true appreciation of his mission,—which is to relieve distress and point the way to thrift and prudence in the affairs of men generally.

The Confidential Man

He knows when the average man is prosperous and also when he is not, because he tells the Canada Life Man the story of his progress. The Canada Life representative in fact becomes the confidential man of the community.

To the Canada Life Man everything speaks of the need for insurance.

Finding this need all around him he tries to fit the plan of insurance to the individual need; just as the experienced lawyer is expected to give the best advice to his client or the physician the best course of treatment to his patient.

His sympathy and advice are indeed very important factors in his success.

Trained for Special Service

He is trained for this service through the "Canada Life Course of Life Insurance."

He visits factories, offices and homes, pressing forward his mission, arranging interviews for his clients with the medical examiner, discussing questions of health and finance, pointing the way of satisfaction and progress to everyone he meets.

The day ends before he is ready to give up his interesting work, but he has caused many a man to stop and think,—he has helped widows in need, and impressed upon all those he has met the importance of economy in their affairs and the need of protection for those under their care.

Will you, in the spirit of the above, discuss with the Canada Life Man, or correspond with the head office of the Company, freely and fully as to your need for protection,—your desire to save?

Thrift, always a virtue, is now a patriotic duty. Take stock of your affairs; adopt the best method of caring for your obligations; find out how to plan your estate.

In other words, consult an old, tried Company, with abundant evidence of success; experienced in life insurance, paying large dividends to policyholders, and safely and sanely managing its business.

OTTAWA, June 3.—An important ruling dealing with the collection of luxury taxes was issued tonight by the Department of Customs and Inland Revenue. The ruling provides as follows:

"Retail merchants and other vendors of articles subject to the luxury tax, who sell to the purchaser for consumption or use, are advised that upon the occasion of each sale of a taxable article the following requirements must be fulfilled, viz.:

"1. An invoice or sales slip showing the price at which the article is sold, exclusive of tax, and as a separate item, the amount of luxury tax thereon shall at the time of sale be delivered by the vendor to the purchaser.

"2. The vendor shall at the time of sale collect from the purchaser the amount of luxury tax shown on the sales slip. No merchant is authorized to advertise or announce that he is paying the tax for the customer."—Calgary Herald.

LONDON, June 2.—King George's 55th birthday today produces many loyal eulogistic references.

The official celebrations will take place on Saturday, when the prime minister's list of honors is published. The customary ministerial dinners have been suspended. The colonial office list of honors, which was published today, contains no Canadian names, but a number of knightships, etc., go to other dominions.—Calgary Herald.

WINNIPEG, June 3.—The Manitoba provincial elections will be held June 29, with nomination day one week earlier, it was officially announced today.—Calgary Herald.

EDMONTON, June 3.—Parts of the body of Hugh Jackson, of Swan River, Alberta, have been located by the Alberta Provincial Police, after a five months' search, and a charge of murder has been entered against his wife, Mrs. Sadie Jackson, who is alleged to have confessed to killing her husband with a shotgun as he slept on Christmas night last. Two Indians are implicated in the alleged crime.—Calgary Herald.

PARIS, June 5.—Plans by which a fixed sum would be decided upon for Germany's payments in reparation to the allies, will probably be abandoned, says the Echo De Paris, which asserts the supreme allied council will revert to the system of "extensible annuities," by which Germany may cancel her war debt.

This plan was discussed at the meeting of the supreme allied council at San Remo.

Postponement of the Allied German conference at Spa, which is scheduled for June 21, is probable, the newspapers declare. — Calgary Herald.

"BOUND AND GAGGED" FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, JUNE 18-19

The first three chapters look very promising and one feature is that the story has innumerable comedy touches and is more light and airy than the general run of serials. Of course the mystery is there and also the chase for the papers.

But there are no weird hands hovering about and it does not possess such a heavy atmosphere as the usual serial thriller. But there are thrills and stunts enough and a rather neat and logical plot supplying a reason for everything. The continuity is clear and easy to follow, but it does not destroy the suspense.

This can safely be branded a "different" serial and should prove a novelty from this fact alone. A young millionaire to win his sweetheart's favor, which he has been fast losing because of his placid acceptance of the ordinary mode of living, makes a wager that he can start naked and without a penny or the use of influence will make his way around the world in six months.

A villain determines to play havoc with the young millionaire's stocks and bonds when he is absent. And the hero in securing a coat to suitably cover his nudeness manages to grab a coat containing some very valuable papers.

There you have the elements for some excitement and a chase with an added romantic element. For these same papers affect the future of a Princess who is kept a prisoner in her country by revolutionists. The hero rescues this charming Princess just at the conclusion of the third episode and left the reviewer anxious to see the balance of the serial.

The star is athletic and likable and is a good swimmer. The direction is very good and the cast is adequate. Photography and laboratory work is up to standard.—Tom Hamlin.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

MONTREAL, June 7.—An attempt to enforce compulsory labor by making strikes unlawful must be resisted at any cost, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared here today in his address at the opening of the fortieth annual convention of the federation.

"I have no fear as to what the results will be," he added. "As long as I have life and my mind is not impaired I will stand for the right of the men and women toilers of the world to be free, untrammelled, and unowned by any force."

Mr. Gompers urged organized labor to "hold itself in leash and use its power of force and influence in moderation, but asserted that all the workers must be kept on the 'firing line.'"

"No one can hurt or injure our movement, or destroy it, but ourselves," the labor chief told the delegates, warning them against ultra-radical movements and disintegrating elements.

After paying a flowery tribute to Canada and her labor organizations, Mr. Gompers said:

"There is no body of men outside of Canada that holds so much good will for Canada than the American Federation of Labor."

"Politically," he added, "the organized labor movement of Canada is independent of the United States as the United States is from Canada."

"The autonomy of the workers and citizens of Canada is just as safe from our hands as ours is from theirs."

"Industrially and economically we are bound together. It could not be different. Our interests and our production of our life and welfare are bound in one movement."

"Industrially our people have decided that our interests are one and we propose to act as one."

The labor president denied reports that the federation was an organization designed "to fleece the worker of Canada out of their money and spending it outside of the Dominion."

He read a report showing that the federation had spent $200,000 more in Canada than it had received from Canadian organizations. In explaining that a misunderstanding had gone out as to the use of the term "international" in connection with the federation, Mr. Gompers asserted it should not be confused with the "international" of some parts of Europe. "I don't know any body of men," he said, "that is so out of harmony with the so-called international as the American Federation of Labor."

"There is, however, an international feeling on the part of labor that the time has come when tyranny and injustice shall come to an end wherever it exists."—Calgary Herald.

LUNDBRECK, Alta., June 3.—The Doukhobors have sold the Fir Grove ranch and the Backus ranch which joins it to Major Wallace Sharp and Mr. W. Larmer. These properties contain about nine hundred acres. This is the first of the holdings which the Doukhobors have disposed of in the province of Alberta.

The fact that the Doukhobors have started to dispose of their holdings in this district may mean that they or rather Peter Verigan, who is their leader and dictator, has decided to leave the province of Alberta.—Lethbridge Herald.

NEWPORT, Eng., June 4.—White and negro sailors clashed in street fighting last night and early this morning in this city. Large crowds assembled in the thoroughfares. Windows were smashed and a number of houses badly damaged. Several revolver shots were fired, but resulted in no casualties. Several combatants, however, were badly beaten and one white sailor was arrested. Careful handling finally restored order. The encounter, which was caused by a quarrel over a woman, recalled similar rioting last year.—Lethbridge Herald.

Rathwell U.F.W.A. Held Session

The U.F.W.A. of Rathwell met on Wednesday, June 2nd, at the home of Mrs. O. L. Mudiman at 2 p.m. The meeting was opened with Bible reading and prayer. A discussion then followed on one of the leading topics of today, a paper having been read by a member on Tariff and Free Trade. During the discussion it was suggested if housewives would read more of the subject they would find out how the tariff affected the articles that were so much in use in the home. Also Mrs. Nellie McClung's article was read, which came out in last week's issue of the Times, on the new Land Tax. It was suggested a vote of thanks was due to her for so ably expressing what was felt would be the opinion of all working classes, for it certainly will fall heavily on them. An invitation from Mrs. Sears, president of U.F.W.A., was also read by the secretary, requesting that the local should send three young people to the Y.P. Convention to be held at the University, Edmonton, the end of June for 3 days. Three were voted upon and the secretary was instructed to send the invitation to them. The following is a typical day's program at the convention:

7 a.m.—Reveille.
7.45 a.m.—Morning recreation.
8.15.—Breakfast.
9 a.m.—Spiritual Rallies.
9.15 a.m.—Address Community Problems.

MARTHA FLORINE WITH BARNES' CIRCUS.

Lady wild animal trainers are fast coming into vogue, the innovation being with animal circus, which is to exhibit in Macleod on June 11th.

With his men in the army and navy, Barnes cast about for women, and his first protegee was Martha Florine, a Belgian girl who took to rearing lions like coddles to a tramp.

Soon she was on speaking terms with one lion, then another, until now she is sole educator of the ponderous group of lions with which she appears in the Barnes' steel arena.

Another lady trainer is Mabel Starke, who is a bit camera shy, but who don't in the least mind entering the arena with 20 Siberian tigers, slaps them in the face whenever occasion requires it, forces them to do as she wishes, and as a climax, grabs the biggest tiger in the bunch, and wrestles it to a decision; her very audacity is her greatest protection.

And to jump from one extreme to another, Bessie Harvey, the prima donna of the white tops, mounts a white equipage, bursts into duet tones, and the answer is the appearance of thousands of love birds; she is accompanied by the only mounted chorus on earth, 40 beauties on 40 horses, who sing while the horses dance; this is the Operatic Equestrienne Extravaganza, over which the audience raves for weeks afterwards.

Grace Marvel has a bunch of panthers that she fox-trots with, and they seem to love their work as they sway at her command.

In direct contrast to this is the unwilling herd of wild zebras, under control of Austin King, the only ones trained to act in the open; King says that for downright meanness his charges are the limit; from their infancy, they have always been the source of much trouble.

Altogether, the Barnes circus has 110 feature acts, with 1200 wild animals taking part, and the 45 clowns are always near by.

This year the street parade is two miles long; many of the animals quarters are wide open, so that all may see; it starts from the show grounds at 10:30 a.m. and is worth going many miles to see, all previous street pageants fading into insignificance beside the Barnes parade this season.

Macleod Agri- cultural Society Meeting

MACLEOD, June 5.—A meeting of the directors was held in the Town Hall on Saturday afternoon, June 5th, and in the absence of the president and vice-presidents, Mr. Harris presided.

Present—Messrs. Bell, Brown, Damon, Embury, Hammersley, Jordan and Paisley.

The secretary read the minutes of meeting held on May 8th. Hammersley-Embury that the minutes be adopted.—Carried.

The secretary intimated that three members of the board of directors had left Macleod, viz., Mr. Reikie, of the Bank of Commerce, Mr. Hutchins of the Bank of Montreal and Mr. Bright of the Macleod Flouring Mills.

Hammersley-Embury moved that Mr. C. A. Mercer, new manager of the Bank of Commerce take Mr. Reikie's place; Mr. G. R. Johnston, Bank of Montreal, take Mr. Hutchins place; and Mr. Butchart new manager of the Flouring Mills, take Mr. Bright's place.—Carried.

The meeting then took up the matter of appointing directors to take charge of the departments on the Fair days, the following were selected:

Directors in Charge of Departments
Horses—H. Bell, W. N. Damon, M. Jordan, Jas. Story.

Cattle—Jos. Horner, C. Hammersley, Jos. Shield, W. H. Shield.

Sports—J. Paisley, Geo. Scougall, A. Schnarr, C. E. Johnson.

Attractions—A. T. Leather, J. L. Fawcett, E. F. Brown, H. Mackintosh.
A recommendation was made to the Attractions Committee, viz., that the grounds be marked off into lots, and so much be charged for each lot, according to position.

Considerable discussion took place regarding the admission charges, and the following motion was carried unanimously—The price of admission will be 50 cents each day for adults, cars $1.00 each, democrats 75 cents, buggies 50 cents each, reserved enclosure and grand stand 25 cents. Children under 15 years free. That the membership fee and admission to the fair for two days be $1.50.

The Sports Committee presented their programme of races for the two days. Moved by Bell-Damon that the Race Programme be adopted.—Carried.

The secretary stated that 18 rural schools were taking part in the school work for children, and that all these schools had received vegetable and flower seeds from the Agricultural School at Chareholm. He suggested, however, that as the seeds were rather late in being distributed, and the lateness of the season, it would be well to postpone the showing of the vegetables from the schools to a later date. After discussing the matter, Damon and Harris moved that the showing of the vegetables from the Rural Schools be postponed till Saturday, September 18th, and that the Exhibition be held in the Town Hall, arrangements for same to be made later.—Carried.

Embury and Damon moved that the meeting adjourn.—Carried.

Brilliant Russian Star Coming to the Empress Theatre in Story of India

Nazimova, the brilliant Russian star, in her newest production, "Stronger Than Death," is announced by the management of the Empress Theatre as the special attraction, on Monday next, for one day. The presentation of this great artiste in a great photodrama is described as a particular treat for motion picture goers.

In "Stronger Than Death," Nazimova returns to powerful emotional roles after her clever impersonation of the chorus waif in her picturization of Maude Fulton's Moroso stage play, "The Brat." Nazimova is cast as Sigrid, a London music hall dancer, who finds love in the almost wilderness of India, whither she goes for rest.

The story is an adaptation of Charles Bryant of I. A. R. Wylie's brilliant novel of Anglo-Indian life. It is said to be replete with thrills and compelling dramatic climaxes that grow out of an abortive mutiny and massacre of the English planned by the fanatical Hindu natives.

Nazimova's biggest scene is her dance on the steps of the temple—a weird dance in the moonlight which strikes awe and terror to the hearts of the blacks, and causes them to delay their uprising until the British garrison comes to the rescue of the civilian community of Gaya. Her sacrifice is rewarded by the devotion of the hermit doctor, the strong male figure in the tense drama.

Herbert Blache and Charles Bryant directed the star in the big production, which is one of greatest beauty from the scenic and photographic angles. It was produced under the personal supervision of Maxwell Karger, Nazimova's Director General.

Mr. Bryant plays Major Tristram Boucicault, the hermit doctor. Others in the superb cast are Charles W. French, Margaret McWade, Herbert Prior, Millie Davenport, Bhogwan Singh, Henry Harmon and W. H. Orlamond. The picture is a Metro release.

Scene taken from the pretty musical play, "A Night in Honolulu," which comes to the Empress Theatre for one night only, coming direct from the Grand Theatre in Calgary.
